Tillson Man Held, Auto Snaps Poles

A driver was charged with driving while intoxicated after a car he drove, police said, clipped two telephone line poles from moorings today on Abeel near Dunn Street where another vehicle struck a broken pole section.

Randolph R. VanKeuren, 18, of Box 1002, Tillson, found injured at the scene, was booked on the charge. He is at the Benedictine Hospital for treatment of head and ear injuries, and if sufficiently recovered is due for city court appearance tonight. His condition was reported as fair later today.

No injuries were reported after the second mishap but a car was damaged. A woman was reported injured Monday afternoon in a two-car accident on Washington Avenue.

Car Total Wreck

VanKeuren was taken to the hospital by Walter Avery, 39, of 761 Abeel Street. The car owned by Roy VanKeuren, of the same address, police said was "total wreck."

Sgt. Thomas Tomshaw with officers Raymond Wells and James Scott went to the scene at about 12:40 a. m. They said one pole broke near its base and the other snapped some six feet from the ground. Officers Louis Sapp and Weston Hoffay were dispatched to the hospital to contact VanKeuren.

The Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp. and the New York Telephone Company were notified, but it was later learned that only telephone lines were involved.

Extends Into Street

A section of one pole, police said, hung partly in the street, and several minutes after the first mishap, the windshield of a car driven by Lucille F. Cassa, 40, of RD 4, Box 537, Kingston, was shattered when it hit the broken length. Police said the VanKeuren car was headed north on Abeel Street when it hit the poles, and the Cassa car moved in the same direction.

Mary Scova, 38, of 252 Conover Street, Hawthorne, was injured police said, when her head struck a windshield in the mishap at about 1:30 p. m. Monday, near 564 Washington Avenue.

She rode in a car owned by the Byrne Car and Truck Leasing Co., 66 Harrison Avenue, White Plains, and driven by John J. Scova, of 202 Warren Avenue, Hawthorne.

The other car, owned and driven by Edward K. Samuelson, 25, of 18 Davis Avenue, Brockton, Mass., police said, was turning into a driveway.

Sgt. Bernard Fowler with officers Frank Monte and George Barringer investigated.

Hunting Opens With Mishaps

One Man Shot Fatally, Other Accidents Occur

Hunters began bringing their kills out of the Catskills and surrounding areas on Monday as the deer season opened but the brightly clad hunters themselves have not escaped completely unscathed.

A Brooklyn man hunting in the Gilboa area was shot fatally by a companion.

A Shokan man had his right arm shattered by a bullet from the gun of an unknown hunter in the vicinity of his unknown home.

Heart Attack Fatal

Another Brooklyn man died of a heart attack while hunting in the Town of Marlboro.

A Hackensack, N. J., man was the object of a Monday night search in the rugged terrain near Wurtsboro.

Charles Cordes, 22, Brooklyn, was shot fatally at Gilboa by a companion, Richard T. Weaver, 20, of Mahopac Falls, who told police he fired his 12-gauge shotgun at a deer. Weaver was released after questioning.

Miles Monaco, 31, of Shokan, was struck in the right arm by a bullet fired by an unknown hunter about 4:30 p. m. Monday. He was hunting near his home with his brother-in-law, Kenneth Gaynor of Brentwood, at the time.

Found Dead

Christian Larsen, 62, of Brooklyn, was found dead in a hunting area owned by the Marbletown Rod and Gun Club shortly after nightfall.

Larsen, a member of the club, entered the woods about 1 p. m. As night began to fall a search party was formed by club members who found his body within the club preserves. Coroner Francis J. McCordale issued a verdict of death due to natural causes.

The Yankee Lake area near Wurtsboro was the scene of an intensive search during the first part of the night for Joseph Yannotti, Sr., 65, of Hackensack, N. J., who became separated from his hunting companions during the afternoon.

He was reported missing by his son, Joseph Jr., and three other companions, about 6:15 p. m. They notified the Marbletown Fire Company which, in turn, called the Wurtsboro state police.

A search party consisting of some 40 state troopers, firemen and volunteers began combing the heavily wooded area.

Finds Way Out

In the meantime, after wandering about in the woods for a while, Yannotti managed to find his way out to Yankee Lake road, walked four miles into Wurtsboro and hired a cab to take him back to Hackensack.

No Longer Laughing Matter

$18 Billion Gold Supply Is at 20-Year Low in U.S.

Editor's Note—The government will announce this week that its supply of gold has dropped below $18 billion for the first time since 1940. Some of the reasons are discussed in this second of a series of three articles by Frank Cormier, Treasury Department reporter for The Associated Press.

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — A few years ago, every comic in the land was getting laughs by poking fun at Uncle Sam's seemingly unlimited supply of gold.

Americans chuckled automatically at every mention of the bullion vaults at Ft. Knox, Ky.

Today, gold no longer is a laughing matter.

In the past 3½ months, other nations have been buying U.S. gold at the rate of more than $1 billion a year. The total American supply—$18 billion—is at a 20-year low.

Foreigners are able to buy heavily because, in their dealings with the United States, they are receiving more dollars than they can handle.

Some of the buying is normal.

Some is abnormal and ominous. The free world's economic machine operates primarily on two brands of gasoline: Gold and U.S. dollars. Gold and dollars finance world trade and are the "re-serves" that stand behind the paper money of most non-Communist countries.

Officials here won't concede there has been any serious uncertainty in the foreign quarters that count most. Governments and their central banks.

Governments and central banks are the only ones—except jewelry makers—who are permitted to buy U.S. gold. Traditionally, they

Link Noted In Upstate GameRaids 16 Are Seized In Two Counties

UTICA, N. Y. (AP) — A special state prosecutor says alleged gambling operations raided Monday in Oneida and Herkimer counties were "largely linked together."

State, city and village police arrested 16 men and women, most of them in their homes, in simultaneous raids in Utica, Herkimer and the Oneida County community of Deerfield.

Months of Probing

Several months of investigation by state troopers and Utica police preceded the crackdown on horse-race betting, prosecutor Robert E. Fischer, assigned by the state to rid Oneida County of vice and corruption, said.

Fischer declined to elaborate on the alleged operations were related.

Meanwhile, U. S. Treasury agents followed up on earlier raids in Auburn and arrested a fifth man on a charge of failing to buy a $50 federal gambling-tax stamp.

State Police said information gathered Saturday in raids on an Auburn restaurant and billiard parlor led to the arrest Monday of John J. Grudzien, 41, at his home in Auburn.

Grudzien was freed in $500 bail, pending action by a federal grand jury. The four men arrested Saturday on similar charges also were freed in bail and face grand jury action.

The mass assault on gambling in the Utica area was the second for Fischer directed within 18 months. Thirteen persons were arrested in May 1959.

Of the 16 arrested yesterday, 13 were nabbed in Utica, 2 in Herkimer and 1 in Deerfield.

Fourteen were charged with bookmaking, a misdemeanor.

They were:

Those Arrested

Anthony Behlog, Joseph Caruso, Philip De Fazio, Mrs. Shirley Vincent, Frank Inserra 3rd, Louis Kallasy, Mrs. Mildred Kolwate, Mrs. Angelina Perritano, Harold Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Tololo, Mrs. Rose Vendetti and Robert Zito, all of Utica and Albert La Porte of Deerfield.

Two were charged with conspiracy to commit bookmaking, also a misdemeanor.

They were: John Moretti and Nick Sangani, both of Herkimer.

Would Put Insurgents on Spot

Demos Eye GOP Rebels To Help in Tax Cut

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Democrats will press for more tax relief than proposed by Gov. Rockefeller and plan to enlist the aid of Republican tax rebels of 1959, the minority leader of the Assembly says.

The mass assault on gambling in the Utica area was the second for Fischer directed within 18 months. Thirteen persons were arrested in May 1959.

Of the 16 arrested yesterday, 13 were nabbed in Utica, 2 in Herkimer and 1 in Deerfield.

Will Seek Support

Anthony J. Travia said Monday he planned to call for support from those Republicans who fought the governor's tax increases last year.

"We're going to put them (Republican tax rebels) right on the spot," Travia said.

The Republican governor favors a 10 per cent rebate on 1960 personal income taxes.

Favors Old System

Travia said he favored restoring personal exemptions to the pre-Rockefeller levels of $2,500 for a married couple, $1,000 for a single person and $400 for each dependent.

Under the Rockefeller administration, the exemptions became $600 for each dependent and a credit against the total tax bill was allowed to help offset the changes in exemptions.

Rockefeller's tax program passed by only two votes in the Assembly in 1959, although Republicans were in control, 92-58.

Travia said he was confident he could win approval of a Democratic program, especially in the Assembly.

Points to Party Gain

Democrats have gained seven seats in that house since Rockefeller's program squeaked through, Travia pointed out.

Republican legislative leaders so far have not said whether they would back the governor or his tax-cut recommendation or present their own plan in the 1961 Legislature.

The GOP majority almost certainly would support the governor's plan in preference to one advanced by Democrats.

Democrats contend the state could give more tax relief than the $90 million it would take under Rockefeller's plan, and they say tax relief should be given for more than one year.

The two men met in De Gaulle's private office. Although it was billed in advance as a courtesy call, the two men immediately got down to serious talk.

De Gaulle 70 Today

Johnson is in Paris attending a meeting of parliamentarians from NATO countries. He was invited to the palace in order to give De Gaulle his first official contact with the incoming American administration.

On coming from the meeting, Johnson said he had extended his 70th birthday today.

Then Johnson drove across the Seine River to lunch with Premier Michel Debre and a dozen or more French political and government figures.

The vice president-elect was accompanied to De Gaulle's residence by U.S. Ambassador Amory Houghton.

Says Meeting Cordial

In a brief interview in the palace courtyard after the talk Johnson said: "We had a very cordial meeting. I felt very stimulated and deeply appreciative for the opportunity to be in the presence of one of the world's great leaders."

Before the De Gaulle talk, Johnson's aides said the vice president-elect had no intention of bringing up at this time any of the issues on which France and the United Western delegates predicted he would win by a comfortable margin, but the issue was complicated by fighting in Leopoldville.

Kasavubu's arrest last August along with others resulted in a countywide crackdown on gambling launched by District Attorney Raymond J. Minot. Kiernan was booked a second time within a week. It was alleged that he had participated in the so-called "skin-game." He resigned as a motor equipment operator with the public works department shortly after he was booked for gambling.

Some seven or eight arrests were made locally within two weeks in August after the district attorney began the crackdown. The local arrests were by detectives William Slover, Albert Hutton and Harold DeGraff.

Vincent Bouck, who had been represented by William F. Curran of Rosendale, retained Attorney Joseph Avis as his counsel, he informed the court.

Entrance of a new attorney in his case led to postponing sentence here Monday in County Court on a man found guilty of statutory rape in 1959.

Bouck was found guilty of statutory rape involving a 17-year-old Kingston girl in August 1959.

James C. Kiernan, 49, Kingston barber of 37 Broadway, entered a plea of guilty to violation of Section 970, a gambling statute, and was sentenced to 60 days in jail and a $250 fine was imposed. The jail sentence was suspended but the fine was paid. Kiernan in answer to the usual questions said he had been convicted of violation of Section 970 on a prior occasion. Frank Campochiaro appeared for defendant.

Also appearing before County Judge Louis G. Bruhn was Paul W. F. Groves, 54, of 150 West 69th Street, New York City, who paid a $100 fine on a plea of illegal possession of a firearm. Charles Saccoman and Joseph J. Qualtere appeared for Groves.

Detective Slover, also on Monday picked up Robert W. Harper, 20, of 62 Hurley Avenue, on a warrant charging violation of probation. He was paroled in the custody of Attorney Hubert A. Richter pending court appearance.

The Grange agricultural program calls for (1) creation of a contingency reserve of food and feed; (2) a food for peace program; (3) distribution of surplus foods to the needy in depressed areas of the country; (4) an ever normal granary program as insurance against crop disasters; (5) area development programs; and (6) a national self-help marketing act to help farmers in the orderly marketing of products.

Ashley Is Going To Grand Jury On Knife Charge

George Ashley, 29, of 69 Ferry Street, charged Nov. 17 with second degree assault after a reported downtown fight involving alleged knife wielding, waived examination before City Judge Aaron E. Klein today and was held for grand jury action.

Theodore Roosevelt Jones, 34, of West Strand, reported victim of the assault, appeared in city court today on a disorderly conduct charge for his part in the alleged fight. He said he would obtain counsel and Judge Klein put the case over for night court hearing. Bail fixed at $100, was not immediately posted.

It is alleged that Ashley had stabbed Jones in the left leg with a jackknife. The latter was treated at Kingston Hospital.

Attorney Thomas F. Saccoman appeared today for Ashley and Francis J. Vogt for the district attorney's office. Bail, fixed at $500 was not posted.

Examine Expansion

Johnson indicated in a speech Monday that the new U. S. administration would be more receptive to some of De Gaulle's ideas than was the Eisenhower administration. In that light, the NATO parliamentarians today examined possible expansion into broader political and economic fields.

The vice president-elect in his speech sounded a call for "new dimensions" for NATO which would "enlarge the community of joint purposes to include new neighbors of the world."

Proposals for developing political and economic cooperation within NATO were to come up in closed committee sessions.

Johnson, as a member of the political committee, was in a position to spell out more in detail what he had in mind in speaking of new dimensions for new neighbors.

ficial tallies for several more weeks.

Thus far, 11 states have completed the official canvass, and 11 others hope to finish this week. Fifteen other states canvassing boards meet next week.

Some of the 13 others may not finish their counting much before the Electoral College meets Dec. 19 to make official the selection of the next president.

Why, in these days of quick communications, does it take so long to get the vote tabulated?

The variety of state laws, special provisions for absentee voting, and sometimes the lack of interest of election officials combine with other factors to delay the count.

Held for Hearing

Opponents of the move to seat Kasavubu contend that no action should be taken until the U. N. conciliation commission goes to the Congo to try to bring warring political factions together.

Memorial Tribute

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. ANNA D. TROWBRIDGE, who passed away on Veteran's Day, in Kingston.

The sadness which surrounds death, in any case, is accentuated when it takes from a community, a useful, middle-aged lady such as Anna.

She was a loyal member of The American Legion Auxiliary and served us well as Ulster County Secretary. In so doing she endeared herself to our members, not only in our County, but our District and State as well.

How fortunate for those of us who came to know her and appreciate her friendship, in the true meaning of the word, since Anna was a true friend to all.

Let us strive to pattern our lives after the high Christian ideals she stood for.

Her charm; her intelligence; her genuine sincerity and her marvelous courage, during her long illness will always be remembered as she sleeps the long sleep in Tongore Cemetery, Olive Bridge.

So it is only natural that she will be mourned by a wide circle of friends.

The Angel of Death has beckoned a loved one to come 'HOME' and although there will be a 'VACANT CHAIR' at our meetings, Anna D. Trowbridge, will live forever in the hearts of those who loved her!

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—What to call the present state of business is still dividing the experts—even with election considerations out of the way. And so is setting the date for a change in whatever the condition is called.

An economy with as many persons out of work can't be given a clean bill of health. Nor can an economy where emergency steps are being taken to shore up the value of the U.S. dollar in the eyes of the world.

But while many cr' the present state a recession, others insist its just a mild inventory adjustment, and some deny it's anything more than a breather ensuring a further advance—at some future time.

The stock market has been playing it cagey. It has neither soared convincingly in expectation of a quick and impressive upswing in business, nor has it slumped badly of late in anticipation of a real slide into hard times.

The figures available to business economists just haven't pointed decisively in either direction—a strong rebound or a growing slump.

The latest over-all figures, those of the Commerce Department on the dollar value of all goods and services produced—gross national product—show the first nine months of the year averaging $503.5 billion at an annual rate. Allowing for price increase, the rise in output over the same period last year comes to 3 per cent.

The gross national product reached a record $505 billion rate in the April-June quarter but slipped back in the summer months. Personal consumption spending also dipped a bit in the third quarter. Business inventories were about the same.

Economists think the final three months of 1960 will be at roughly the same pace.

Variations on setting the date for an about face in the over-all economy are almost as wide.

Those who hold that the major culprit has been the fall off in business spending for inventory—down some $11.4 billion since the first three months of 1960—say this can't go on much longer. Therefore, sometime in the first half of 1961 business ordering of materials and finished products will pick up. The economy then should be on the upgrade again by next summer.

Those who call consumer hesitancy to splurge the chief worry of business just now hold—unless they can't prove it—that this is sure to disappear in coming months.

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—What to call the present state of business is still dividing the experts—even with election considerations out of the way. And so is setting the date for a change in whatever the condition is called.

An economy with as many persons out of work can't be given a clean bill of health. Nor can an economy where emergency steps are being taken to shore up the value of the U.S. dollar in the eyes of the world.

But while many cr' the present state a recession, others insist its just a mild inventory adjustment, and some deny it's anything more than a breather ensuring a further advance—at some future time.

The stock market has been playing it cagey. It has neither soared convincingly in expectation of a quick and impressive upswing in business, nor has it slumped badly of late in anticipation of a real slide into hard times.

The figures available to business economists just haven't pointed decisively in either direction—a strong rebound or a growing slump.

The latest over-all figures, those of the Commerce Department on the dollar value of all goods and services produced—gross national product—show the first nine months of the year averaging $503.5 billion at an annual rate. Allowing for price increase, the rise in output over the same period last year comes to 3 per cent.

The gross national product reached a record $505 billion rate in the April-June quarter but slipped back in the summer months. Personal consumption spending also dipped a bit in the third quarter. Business inventories were about the same.

Economists think the final three months of 1960 will be at roughly the same pace.

Variations on setting the date for an about face in the over-all economy are almost as wide.

Those who hold that the major culprit has been the fall off in business spending for inventory—down some $11.4 billion since the first three months of 1960—say this can't go on much longer. Therefore, sometime in the first half of 1961 business ordering of materials and finished products will pick up. The economy then should be on the upgrade again by next summer.

SALUTE TO POLICE OFFICER

The esteem and respect shown Patrolman John R. Crespino by the Kiwanis Club of Kingston, which named him officer of the year, brings to public attention the truism that no element of our life is more vital to the public welfare than the police officer.

The local service club is to be congratulated for its public manifestation of the great usefulness of police officers as symbolized by the honored patrolman. We are sure that such recognition will go a long way in dispelling the unwarranted and reckless criticism of our law enforcement officers. If it were not for the hard-working and dedicated policemen, there would be no order on our streets and highways and there would be no barrier against criminals.

Aside from their duties as guardians of the public safety and defenders against those who violate the law, policemen frequently perform other duties in the public interest on "their time off." It might be well to add here that law enforcement officers are always on a 24-hour alert.

In the light of the fact that police officers are on continuous call and that their work is hazardous, the bid for a pay boost for police department personnel should be given immediate and serious consideration.

We are happy to have the opportunity to again express our appreciation for the labors of devoted police officers and to compliment the Kingston Kiwanis Club for honoring Patrolman Crespino, who so richly deserves the salute.

EXQUISITE AGONY.

In an offhand manner, in the waning hours of the recent campaign, Vice President Nixon said that one day he might write a book on his experiences as a candidate for president. He suggested, perhaps in jest, that it be entitled "The Exquisite Agony." It would be hard to imagine a more apt title.

Aside from the physical beating the candidates take—the long, grinding hours, the sleeplessness, the endless speeches that leave throats raw—there is the mental strain that comes with the knowledge that the candidate's supreme effort may not be quite good enough to bring victory. It must also come to such men, in the few quiet moments they are allowed, that they are asking for the most difficult and demanding job in the world, that they may end up with responsibility for the safety and well-being of the world.

It is hard for any of us to imagine what a man must feel and think when he embarks on a campaign. If we could realize what the candidates go through, what sustains them in that difficult time, what, if anything, consoles them when the electorate decides against them, it might help us to understand our society better. Nixon is an articulate man. A frank and personal book by him about the recent campaign would be most valuable, not only to his contemporaries but to the historians who some day will try to analyze how it was in the harried days of 1960.

GOVERNMENT IN BUSINESS

Citizens in the United States have pretty much taken freedom for granted. It is something that they have always enjoyed like the air they breathe. They overlook the fact that as the air of our cities is becoming more and more polluted, so is our freedom.

No industry has more at stake than the newspapers in the fight against "welfarism" and socialization of industry in the United States. What happens to newspapers when a people is "freed" by having the government take over the means of production? One of the first things that has to go is a free press. This has happened in every country where political domination of the people has been used to "free" them to take over private activity. Witness Cuba as the

'These Days'

By GEORGE B. SOKOLSKY

It would seem that at this moment there is a renewed campaign in favor of Alger Hiss. The effort is to show that Hiss has suffered martyrdom and is now living in poverty. The inherent appeal in such an article as appears on this subject in "Esquire" magazine, is for compassion and we are a compassionate people.

"Esquire," by caption and the photographic setting as well as the nature of two articles in juxtaposition, shows how Roy Cohn, who had been one of Hiss' adversaries, has prospered. The titles are interesting: "The Problems of Alger Hiss" as contrasted with "The Pleasures of Roy Cohn." Hiss is the man of purpose; Cohn the man of pleasure. Why this contrast is made, it is difficult to understand, as Cohn did not benefit from Hiss' miseries nor did Hiss suffer from Cohn's affluence. Hiss it is said:

"At present, Alger Hiss is selling stationery. He lives at a water-front address in New York City in a third-floor walk-up, a sad building with a tattered green awning over a vacant store front piled high with empty cardboard cartons, and next door, Harry Feldman, Slop Chest Supplies / Everything for the Sailor. It looks like the kind of hide-out . . . that Whittaker Chambers would have picked in his darker days. Last Spring the apartment was robbed . . . the total loot was a $25 ring and a $5 pair of cuff links. "Since last year, he has been separated from his wife, Priscilla."

Of Roy Cohn, it says: "Roy Cohn is thirty-three now . . . Cohn today is a partner in the New York law firm of Saxe, Bacon, and O'Shea, from which he earns $250,000 a year. He is a major stockholder of The Lionel Corporation, maker of toy trains, fuses, and electronic equipment; a subsidiary manufactures sporting goods and another is a leading producer of missile components. He is a one-third owner of Feed Sports, Inc. which promoted, among other fights this past year, both of the Johansson-Patterson heavyweight championship bouts. He is a successful investor in the stock market, owns two middle-sized restaurants of no particular distinction in Manhattan, and holds oil leases in Texas, New Mexico, and Kentucky . . . etc., etc."

What does this contrast mean? It means that Alger Hiss has taken his downfall with bitterness and resentment; it means that Roy Cohn, who was smeared because of his association with Senator Joe McCarthy and who accumulated a host of enemies, went to work to achieve a personal success. One man who felt he was unjustly treated, lives in the past, resents the present and has no future; the other man has gone ahead.

In these articles, Hiss is painted as a Werther and Cohn as a Till Eulenspiegel. It is an interesting contrast but wholly untrue as to Cohn and I presume, not knowing Hiss, that he will one day be released from his misery by finding a place for himself in which his talents can still be used in his country's interest.

These tales of two men who took divergent paths may be interesting and therefore they justify some magazine notice. But it is not a true contrast because Roy Cohn's success in business has nothing to do with Alger Hiss's failure as a public servant. Roy Cohn's capabilities are in the fields of law and finance. His father was a distinguished jurist in New York; his grandfather was a banker. He comes by his abilities naturally. Alger Hiss also is a lawyer and as such has had a brilliant start, but he got caught in the Marxism of the 1930's and went to prison therefore. Cohn avoided such entanglements which apparently shocks "Esquire" which quotes Richard Rovere as follows:

"In all probability, Cohn's anti-Communism was somewhat less of a caprice and an improvisation than McCarthy's, for Cohn was Jewish and from New York, and at about the time he came to man's estate and participated in the Rosenberg prosecution, it seemed particularly important to many Jews not only to disassociate themselves from Jewish Communists, but to demonstrate a zealous and fiery anti-Communism."

Jewish participation in anti-Communist efforts antedates the Rosenberg case. I refer to the work of Isaac Don Levine, Eugene Lyons, Ben Gitlow, Benjamin Stolberg, David Dubinsky, myself and many others. These articles in "Esquire" prove nothing except that some folks like Hiss and some dislike Cohn.

Weigh Benefits, Faults
Of Mental Treatment

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.

Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The general understanding and treatment of nervous and mental disorders have been more greatly advanced in recent years than in all recorded medical history. Yet you constantly hear complaints from reasonable people who have been unable to obtain satisfactory neuropsychiatric care for themselves or for some member of their family or who have been disappointed at the wide gap between promise and fulfillment.

Perhaps the following explanations will help to lessen and even prevent some of these disappointments:

Mood drugs, shock treatments and operative procedures (psycho-surgery) relieve only the symptoms not the disease. Like aspirin and related pain-killers, they sweep the manifestations under the rug.

It exchange for benefits obtained from each of these forms of symptomatic treatment, a penalty may be exacted. Mood drugs occasionally have habit-forming and frequently produce undesirable side effects. Although these side effects are usually of only minor importance, they may be serious and at times fatal.

Shock treatment may be accompanied by dislocations and fractures. They frequently are followed by disturbances of memory. Any psychosurgery often leaves the patient with a general flattening of personality emotional expression and mentality.

Since none of these treatment methods is precise, it is impossible to predict in advance when the effort will be successful, whether wholly or by balance, and when partially or wholly unsuccessful or even harmful.

Consequently, the conscientious physician acts to protect his own and the patient's best interests when he postpones treatment until interested parties can be made acquainted with possible benefits and probable risks.

In the case of a disturbance that is not incapacitating, it is wise to heed the ancient teaching of "noli nocere" (Be ye unwilling to do harm).

In the case of a disturbance that incapacitates the patient and/or threatens the peace and welfare of family or community, it is wise to consider the teaching of the Father of Medicine who favored "desperate remedies for desperate situations."

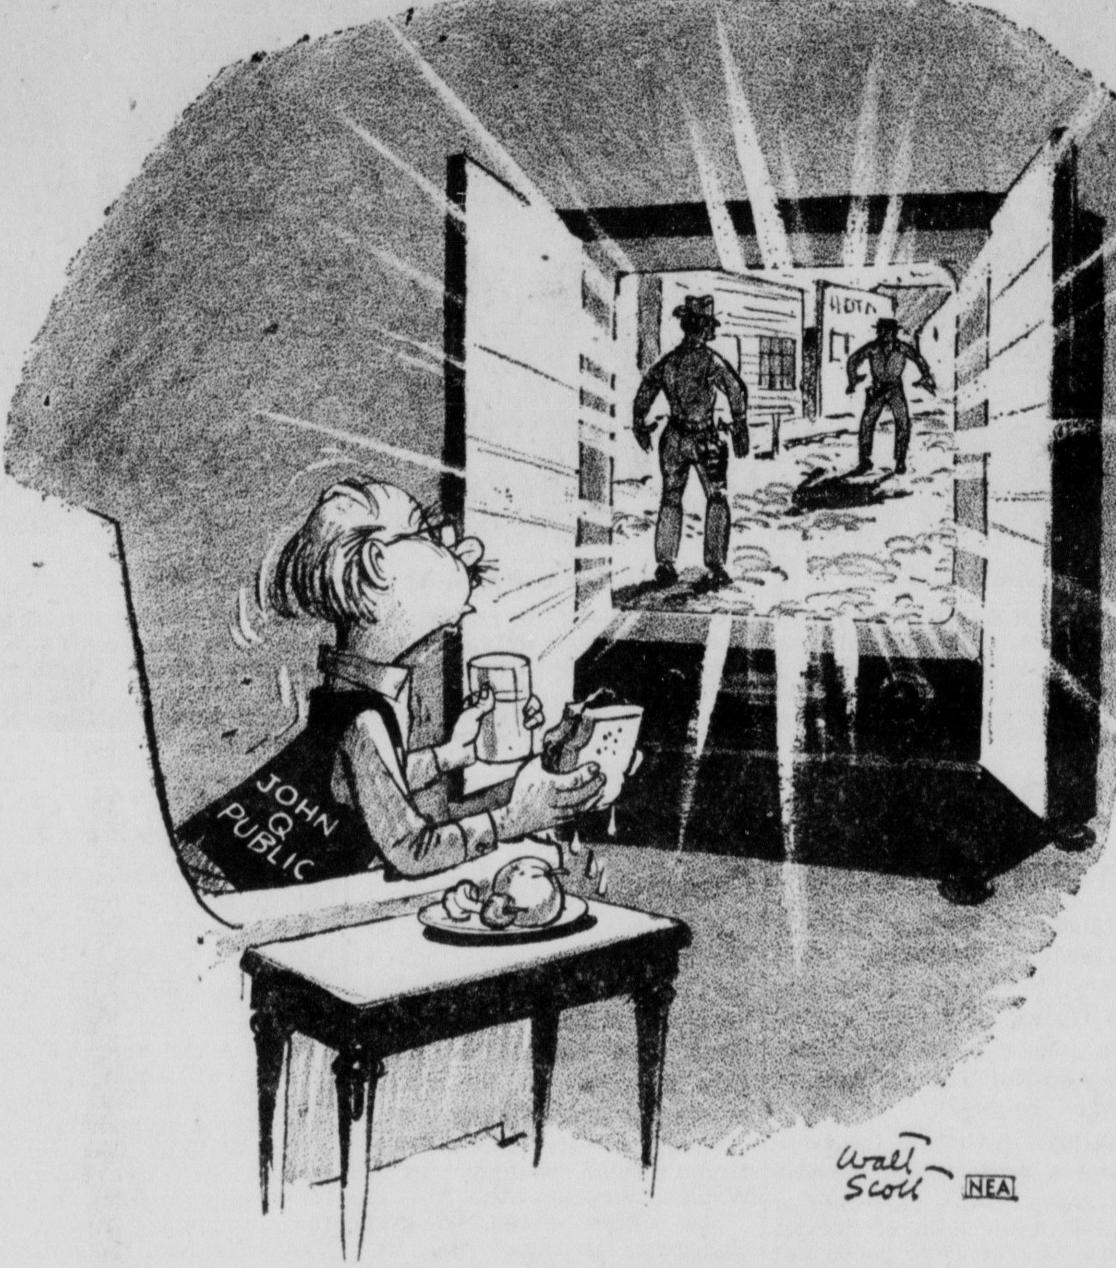

If you are forewarned of the limitations and possible risks of treatment, you're not apt to be so dissatisfied or disappointed when the outcome isn't as favorable as you wished. And if you're one of the many who has profited, you have more cause for rejoicing.

I'll discuss psychotherapy in another column.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

The question of who won the presidential election poll of newspaper editors conducted by this column is as complex as the Electoral College itself. It will take some time to pick the winner.

Three hundred and fifty editors from every state in the Union responded to this poll. In 59 percent of the editors were supporting the GOP, 21 percent were independent and 6 percent undecided when the poll was closed Oct. 15.

Fourteen percent, or only 49 editors — about half in the south, half in the north — predicted Kennedy would win, for which they deserve blue ribbons.

Three said Kennedy would win without guessing at the electoral vote totals. Sixteen editors thought Kennedy would win with fewer than 300 electoral votes. Thirty thought he would win with more than 300.

The average of all editors' predictions was that Nixon would win with 307 electoral votes, to 230 for Kennedy.

If they had just turned those figures around and made it 307 for Kennedy and 230 for Nixon, they would have been close.

LATEST WORD FROM Mississippi is that its eight electors won't vote for either candidate, so leave them out.

The word from Alabama is that one of its unpledged electors won't vote for Kennedy.

If Nixon finally and officially carries California — and on the basis of the absentee ballot count he went ahead — Kennedy could reach a 303 electoral vote total by definitely winning Alaska's three votes.

If that case two editors would

In the event that Nixon carries Alaska in addition to California, Kennedy would remain with his present definite total of 300. Executives of eight newspapers were smacked on target — 300 for Kennedy.

Copters in Hunt For 2 Hunters Believed Drowned

WATERTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—Sheriff's deputies, with the aid of a helicopter, resume a search today for two duck hunters believed to be drowned. Their overturned boat was found floating in Lake Ontario late Monday.

Clifton E. Stiles Jr., 26, and Lawrence Netto, about 26, both of Watertown, were last seen yesterday morning when they set out for Chaumont Bay, 12 miles west of here.

A farmer found their 12-foot aluminum boat and decoys in the bay off Pillar Point.

No trace was found of the men during brief dragging operations before sunset Monday.

The Jefferson County sheriff's department called Griffiss Air Force Base, Rome, for a helicopter to help in the search.

Feels U. S. Exports May Hit $100 Billion

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Foreign markets appear promising enough "to warrant really all-out sales efforts by American manufacturers and merchants," a Commerce Department official says. Bradley Fisk, assistant secretary of commerce for international affairs, told businessmen Monday night that exports from all free-world nations could reach $100 billion in 1961, compared with an anticipated $85 billion total this year and $86 billion in 1959.

Fisk addressed the Sales Executives Club of Central New York.

Going Prospecting?

AUGUSTA, Maine (AP)—Maine isn't exactly expecting a gold rush, but the state regards the quest for gold and semi-precious gems important enough to justify a publication on the subject.

The Jefferson County sheriff's department called Griffiss Air Force Base, Rome, for a helicopter to help in the search.

Says U.S. Must Support Peiping In U.N. Move

CLINTON, N. Y. (AP)—The United States must admit the existence of two China's and support the admission of Red China to the United Nations, the president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace says.

Joseph E. Johnson said the United States must shift political ground in its long-standing opposition to the admission of Red China. But before doing so, he said, we should emphasize that we will not allow the "people of Formosa to be drawn behind the Bamboo Curtain" and that "we have moral and political obligations in Formosa that we will not forget."

Johnson made the remarks Monday night at Hamilton College in connection with the endowment's 50th anniversary. He said afterward that he did not favor extending diplomatic recognition to Communist China.

Fluid Milk Prices Averaging Higher

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fluid milk prices this month are averaging slightly higher at both producer and consumer levels than a month and year ago.

The Agriculture Department's surveys showed dealers paid an average of $5.72 a hundredweight for fluid milk in early November. This was 5 cents higher than October and 7 cents above November 1959.

The average price for a single quart of delivered milk in 25 major cities throughout the nation was 26.7 cents early this month. That was the same average as October but seven-tenths of a cent higher than last November.

The harbor in Naples has a depth of 30 to 35 feet.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was uncertain and mixed in fairly active trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .20 to 215.10 with the industrials up .20, rails unchanged and utilities up .10.

Most key stocks showed fractional changes. Among a few of the higher-priced or more speculative issues were some wider movers.

The proximity of Thanksgiving Day—the start of a long weekend for many on Wall Street—was one factor which bred uncertainty. The drop of the steel industry operating rate below 50 per cent of capacity in the holiday-shortened week was another.

Aircraft-missile, vending machine, electronics and other "science" issues showed a little life but most major groups were irregular.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .56 at 605.00.

MISS CONGENIALITY LAUNCHES PROMOTION

Miss Susan Jane Talbert of Ogdensburg, Miss. New York State, 1960-61, confers with officials of the Kingston Area Junior Chamber of Commerce Saturday regarding a two-pronged promotion to which she will bring her glamor and charm—1. A state-wide promotion of the next Miss New York State Pageant which will be held in July, 1961, and 2. A promotion

To Enlarge on Promotion*Miss New York Appearances To Help Pageant and State

A program designed to promote the next Miss New York State Pageant and to develop and expand business and industrial activity in the Empire State was launched this weekend with conferences between Susan Jane Talbert of Ogdensburg, Miss. New York State, and officials of the Kingston Area Junior Chamber of Commerce which for the past two years has sponsored the state pageant in the city of Kingston.

Confering with the glamorous Miss Talbert, who was elected Miss Congeniality at the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City this summer, were Michael Starkman, president of the Valley Advertising Agency, promotional director of the Miss New York State Pageant, and Robert Carlton, Junior Chamber publicity director.

To Help Two Ways

Purpose of the campaign is to drum up interest on two fronts to attract interest in the state pageant which will be held next summer and to use Miss Talbert's immense appeal to heighten and intensify business and industrial activity in the Empire State.

A spokesman for Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller indicated that the governor will offer his full support to the effort.

Starkman, whose agency handles advertising and promotional material for consumer and trade clients in this part of the state, said today, "I think the Miss New York State Pageant, in the image of Miss Talbert, can do much to bring heightened business activity to the Empire State for those business people able to cooperate promptly."

Starkman has been in Kingston for the past 12 years. He's been here since 1947.

Proceeds of the promotion will be used to stage the pageant, should the local Junior Chamber of Commerce be again franchised to sponsor the event, and to promote the service activities of the local Jaycee organization.

A booklet will be printed for distribution throughout the state to encourage young lady contestants to enter the Miss New York State Pageant. They must be between 18 and 28, single and otherwise qualified.

Starkman said many thousands of the booklets would be distributed.

Balloon, Chute Help Bring Back Capsule

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has safely brought back to earth a 500-pound space capsule using a combination of a drag balloon and a parachute.

The device, called a ballute, was tested successfully for the second time Monday at Santa Rosa Island, Fla. The capsule was shot to a height of 32 miles by a three-stage missile.

Four other rockets were launched during the day in reentry tests at the Eglin Air Force Base site. Three of these also involved balloons.

The ballute system, developed by Goodyear Aircraft Corp., worked this way:

As the third stage of the rocket reached 75,000 feet, still coasting upward at 1,100 miles an hour, a nine-foot balloon was released from the tail section.

The tests are aimed at finding out whether drag balloons can help solve re-entry problems by slowing down space capsules enough so they won't burn up in the atmosphere as they come down.

It was also decided to hold a Christmas party and buffet lunch on Dec. 19 at the Oak Grove Motel for members and their wives. There will be an exchange of gifts.

The balloon popped into shape in a tenth of a second and was reeled out on a cable to stabilize the 500-pound capsule and slow it down by atmospheric drag.

A strain gauge measured the amount of drag and radioed the information to the ground, while a camera recorded the balloon's performance.

The capsule eventually reached a height of 170,000 feet. When the balloon had slowed it to less than the speed of sound (760 miles an hour), a parachute popped out and lowered the package into the Gulf of Mexico test range.

Surface crews recovered the capsule 45 minutes after it was launched.

Ungar to Talk At Jack's Trial

NEW YORK (AP) — The real estate operator who paid $4,400 for a renovation job on Manhattan Borough President Hulan E. Jack's apartment will be called to the witness stand at Jack's trial today or Wednesday.

The operator, Sidney J. Ungar, will testify for the prosecution. Presumably he again will be a reluctant witness, as he was at Jack's first trial which ended with a hung jury last July.

Ungar will follow Fred Bechtel, the contractor hired by Ungar to do the renovation.

Bechtel, a key witness for the prosecution, testified about the job Monday and said Ungar made efforts to concoct a story for the authorities to cover up the real facts of the deal. Bechtel's testimony was mostly a repeat of what he said at the first trial.

Jack, highest ranking Negro municipal officeholder in the nation, is on trial on charges of violating the $4,400 work from Ungar at a time when Ungar had business dealings with the city. Jack also is charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice by giving investigating authorities a false story about the deal.

Jack suspended himself from his $25,000-a-year post pending outcome of the trial and retrial.

For the first seven months of 1960, run-of-the-paper color advertising lineage in newspapers topped that of the same period in 1959 by 20%.

FAMILY EXPENSES GROWING?

Here's an income that can grow to help you meet them

Maybe there's nothing much you can do to stop family expenses from going up. But here's something you can do that might help your income increase, too.

A second income that can grow

Let's suppose you become a shareholder in a company that's well-managed and progressive. And it grows in size and profits. This means that your income from dividends can grow, too. And your stock might grow in value. You have a chance to grow as American business grows.

The growing number of investors

Today more than twelve million Americans are shareholders. In recent years there has been an average of 860,000 new investors annually. Nearly half of them earn from $5,000 to $10,000 a year. The first investments of practically all of them were small.

What about the risk?

Reduce it to a minimum by following these simple rules. Invest only with funds you don't need for current living or to provide for emergencies. Don't risk a penny without the facts. Tips and rumors are never enough. Stock prices fluctuate like the price of anything else.

Denies Catholics In P. R. Will Be Punished for Vote

CHICAGO (AP) — The archbishop of San Juan, Puerto Rico, has flatly denied that Roman Catholics in that country will be punished for disobeying a church's order on voting in a national election.

The Most Rev. James P. Davis in a statement Monday night said sacraments would not be withheld from Catholics who defied church instructions to vote against Gov.

Luis Munoz Marin's Popular Democratic party in the Nov. 8 election.

Martin's party swept the election.

His statement followed a report that the Catholic woman mayor of San Juan, Felisa de Gauthier, was ordered by her pastor to do public penance before she can receive Communion because of the way she voted.

Archbishop Davis, in Chicago for a meeting of the Catholic Church Extension Society, said his statement covers all three dioceses in the church's Puerto Rico province — San Juan, Ponce and Arecibo.

Women Read the Ads

The American Institute of Laundering states that 80% of men's clothing is purchased by women. Retailers of men's clothing put about 85% of their budgets into newspapers because they know that the favorite section of the newspaper with women is advertising.

Yule Committee Collecting Toys

NEW PALTZ—The community Christmas committee is once again collecting used toys to be repaired so that needy children of the community may receive them at Christmas time.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars work along with the Christmas committee on this project. The toys may be left at the home of Cornelius Boland on the Kingston Road, and from there they are transported to the Walkill prison where they are repaired and repainted at the prison workshop through the courtesy of Warden Walter Wallack. The local merchants donate lumber and paint toward the necessary repairs, and the sponsoring organizations buy other small items when needed.

Local business men donate the use of their trucks for transportation to and from the prison workshop or when otherwise needed.

Anyone interested in donating used toys to this worthy cause, may leave them at the home of Cornelius Boland. If this is not convenient Edgar Beebe or Cornelius Boland may be contacted. Toys are needed now so that they may be repaired and made ready for distribution by Christmas. The toys not only make many children happy in this area, but portion of the toys go to many other parts of the county.

GOP Honors VanTassel

Arthur Van Tassel was presented with a wallet inscribed with his initials by the clubs president, Edward Frijia, at the recent meeting of the Republican Club. The gift was in appreciation for the fine job he performed at the Republican headquarters during the recent campaign.

Guest speaker at this meeting was Mrs. John Jacobson, assisted by John Ashton Jr., both of whom are members of the Central School Board. Their subject was the two school propositions which will be voted on next month.

Frijia explained that the club was taking no official position in the issue, but was interested in learning the facts. Mrs. Jacobson and Mr. Ashton answered questions also.

Mrs. Gertrude Upright and Mrs. Martha Conklin served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Police Attempt To Link Blaze With Burglaries

BALDWINSVILLE, N. Y. (AP) — A 23-year-old man, questioned intensively by state troopers about a $100,000 church fire and simultaneous wave of burglaries, faced grand jury action today on a charge of third-degree burglary.

State Police said Richard L. Guernsey admitted Monday night that he broke into a filling station and two other places Sunday night while flames destroyed the Grace Episcopal Church, a 125-year-old landmark in this Syracuse suburb.

Guernsey, who lives a block from the church, denied that he set the church afire, troopers said.

Eight business establishments and the church were broken into Sunday night.

Police said the church fire may have been set to distract officers from detecting the burglaries. Five burglaries were reported in the village last week.

Guernsey was ordered held after he waived examination at arraignment in Police Court.

Every one of 1959's top 100 national newspaper advertisers had invested over $1 million, with the No. 1 advertiser spending $38,622,558.

• BRIDGE*All Aces Are Not Enough

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The North hand today is the same as the North hand yesterday so after South's opening not-trump North makes the same two club response and after South's two spade rebid, North asks for aces by his jump to four clubs.

Now there is a difference. South shows two aces by bidding four spades and North knows that the opponents hold only one ace.

Should he gamble and jump right to six? The answer is an unqualified "No." South can have lots of two ace no-trumps with four spades in his hand but with little or no play for six. Should North just pass at four spades? Again an unqualified "No."

North simply bids five spades which tells his partner to go on to the slam if he wants to.

This slam invitation leaves South with no problem at all. He has a 17 point maximum no-trump with a fairly good trump suit and first or second round control of all suits. May-

Hopful of Bank Loan to Meet Teachers' Pay

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — School Supt. James F. Redmond remained optimistic today that the New Orleans School Board, beset by financial as well as integration woes, can meet teacher payrolls this week.

Redmond said he is still hopeful of getting a bank loan to cover the $1.9 million in salaries due teachers, principals and secretaries Wednesday.

Seven of Louisiana's 10 presidential electors said they felt morally obligated to cast ballots for President-elect John F. Kennedy regardless of Kennedy's failure to comment on the integration affair. One elector declined to comment. Two others could not be reached.

At Palm Beach, Fla., Monday Clark Clifford, a Kennedy aide, said the president-elect considers it inappropriate to comment on a U.S. court order restraining the Louisiana Legislature from blocking federally directed integration.

Chris Faser, executive secretary to Gov. Jimmie Davis, and four legislators had flown to Palm Beach Sunday with a resolution asking Kennedy to outline his views on federal court action forbidding the legislature from interfering with school integration.

It was learned that Gov. Davis has called a conference of Southern governors to meet Nov. 30 at Baton Rouge to discuss the integration situation. The Louisiana governor also wants Southern chief executives to unite in getting presidential electors to throw the election into the U.S. House of Representatives.

A decision by a three-judge federal court on a request to suspend racial mixing until federal and state differences can be ironed out may be handed down later this week.

The financial status of the school board was called desperate by Walter Latapie, the board's chief accountant. He said four payrolls totaling about $2.15 million must be met by the end of the month.

Shokan

Fred Decker, Walden, was in Shokan last week. He has rented his camp near Phoenixia to a party of deer hunters and plans to be there himself as much as possible during the open season.

Mrs. Floyd Barringer, the former Lena Constable of Shokan, is a patient at the Kingston Hospital.

Elder Amasa J. Sluson, pastor of the Olive and Hurley OS Baptist Church, and Mrs. Sluson, who before marriage was Edith Secor of Shokan, were recently given an anniversary surprise party by several of their Delaware County friends. Elder Sluson, now of Kingston was born and brought up in the Roxbury area.

Will Try for Repeal Again of Cigar Tax

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Another attempt will be made in the 1961 Legislature to repeal the two-year-old tax on cigars.

A bill calling for repeal of taxes on cigars and some other tobacco products was submitted in the Legislature Monday. Cigarette taxes are not included in the measure.

The cigar tax, at 15 per cent on wholesale prices, nets the state $7 million annually.

Gov. Rockefeller has indicated that he favors repeal. An effort to repeal the tax, which was imposed by the 1959 Legislature, failed last year.

Sen. Earl W. Brydges, R-Niagara, a sponsor, said small shops lost business because of large-scale purchases of cigars outside the state.

Heavier Turkeys Are Abundant in State

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — New York turkeys are abundant in the heavier weights, and these cost less than lightweights, the State Agriculture Department says.

New York growers raised 591,000 birds this year, about 99 per cent of last year's crop. Light birds, however, total only 7,000, compared with 11,000 last year.

The department said Monday that prices averaged 40 cents a pound for turkeys over 16 pounds and 42 to 45 cents for lighter weights.

The prices are about the same as last year and, in some cases, slightly higher, the department added.

Area Students Attend Delhi Institute Night

Area schools participated in the fifth annual Institute Night sponsored by the State University Agricultural and Technical Institute at Delhi recently.

Among the 230 students attending the session were those from Saugerties, Rondout Valley, Ellenville, and Wallkill.

Cooperating in the program for high school students interested in entering one of the Agricultural and Technical Institutes of the State University system were representatives from Alfred, Canton, Cobleskill, Farmingdale and Morrisville.

It was learned that Gov. Davis has called a conference of Southern governors to meet Nov. 30 at Baton Rouge to discuss the integration situation. The Louisiana governor also wants Southern chief executives to unite in getting presidential electors to throw the election into the U.S. House of Representatives.

A decision by a three-judge federal court on a request to suspend racial mixing until federal and state differences can be ironed out may be handed down later this week.

The financial status of the school board was called desperate by Walter Latapie, the board's chief accountant. He said four payrolls totaling about $2.15 million must be met by the end of the month.

If they do, they'll take thousands of other actors with them.

The Screen Actors Guild Monday night authorized a strike against producers of the spot television announcements. The mail vote, 4,369 to 549, was announced at a mass meeting.

A similar action has been taken by the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, with whom the SAG has been negotiating jointly with producers, TV networks and advertising agencies. Both unions' contracts expired last Tuesday.

Mrs. Floyd Barringer, the former Lena Constable of Shokan, is a patient at the Kingston Hospital.

Elder Amasa J. Sluson, pastor of the Olive and Hurley OS Baptist Church, and Mrs. Sluson, who before marriage was Edith Secor of Shokan, were recently given an anniversary surprise party by several of their Delaware County friends. ### Huguenots Set To Meet Hunter-Tannersville

Despite the loss of high scoring Bill Freer, one of the best players ever turned out at the school, New Paltz coach Bill Russell is cautiously optimistic as he sends his cagers into action tonight against Hunter-Tannersville. Game time at the New Paltz court is 7 p.m. and this contest will start the area scholastic season.

Coach Russell, a Cortland State Teachers College graduate and a Highland native, had one of his biggest turnouts ever for basketball. Seventeen boys tried out for the varsity team and another 35 for the jayvees. Another first for the coach is the fact he had to cut several boys from the varsity squad.

Lineup Is Set

The lineup for tonight's opener is set with the five starters all members of last year's varsity. The first five includes juniors Ken Freer, John Keator and Bill Longfield and seniors David Salkever and Phil Hausman. Tony Fiordilino, the rugged football star, promises to be the sixth player but he's out until after the Christmas holidays because of an injury suffered against Oneonta in football.

Players up from the jayvees are Elwood Osterhoudt, John Mars, Carl Reed, Bob Martin and George Bond. Newcomers include Herb VanValkenburg, Ken Peters and Webster Sherman.

Though Coach Russell tabs Onteora as the likely favorite, he isn't counting his club too far out of the UCAL pennant picture. "We're a young club and will be pointing for next year but the desire is there and we hope to win our share this season," he said.

Russell cites the biggest weakness in the club as a lack of height. Bill Freer took care of the rebounding and most of the scoring last season and he'll be hard to replace. He's now a student at Cortland State.

The Huguenot jayvee squad will be coached by Don Crawford, a Springfield College graduate. Boys on the roster include Peter Shand, Roger Longfield, Stewart Glenn, Richard Hoffman, Wayne Burkhardt, Wes Van Vliet, Art Corwin, Don Stone, Bruce McKinney, Roger Hotaling, Lon Fishman, Glenn Martin, Irving Ackerman and a pair of transfer students — Clayton Whittred from Marlboro and John Gibbons from Kentucky.

Included in this year's schedule is the first annual New Paltz High holiday tournament involving the host school and Ellenville, Roosevelt and Valley Central. The ticket sale has been under way for several days and the dinner is open to the public. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the committee.

U. S. Davis Cup Players Top Phillipines' Youngsters

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — The Philippines' bold gamble on youth failed today and America zoomed to a 2-0 lead in the Davis Cup interzone semifinals on smashing singles victories by Barry MacKay and Earl Buchholz.

First MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, crushed 25-year-old Eddie Dungo, playing his first Davis Cup match 6-1, 6-2, 6-0. Then Buchholz of St. Louis, added to the rout by bumbling 23-year-old Johnny Jose, 5-7, 6-1, 6-0, 6-2.

Jose seized the opening set from Buchholz on some sparkling play. But he lacked the experience to go all the way.

Aces Are Benched

The two top-ranked Filipinos

aces, Raymundo Deyro, 34, and Felicimo Ampion, 40, were benched when the nonplaying Philippine captain, Al Del Rio, decided to gamble with his youngsters.

The Americans now need only one more victory, which likely will come Wednesday when Dennis Ralston, Bakersfield Calif., and Chuck McKinley, St. Louis play Jose and Dungo in doubles, to advance to the interzone final against Italy's European champions. The last two singles against the Philippines will be played Thursday.

The survivors of the interzone series will attempt to wrest the big tennis trophy from Australia in the challenge round at Sydney, Dec. 26-28.

The Americans now need only one more victory, which likely will come Wednesday when Dennis Ralston, Bakersfield Calif., and Chuck McKinley, St. Louis play Jose and Dungo in doubles, to advance to the interzone final against Italy's European champions. The last two singles against the Philippines will be played Thursday.

Many Bowl Spots Are Unfilled With One Grid Weekend Left

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO

Freeman Sports Editor

The Harvards whipped the Yales in seven out of eight annual house football games, shut them out in six and that got the Eli Bulldog pretty sore at Cambridge, Mass. He came roaring back and earned a measure of revenge by winning the Frosh and Jayvee games, then clobbered the Cantabs, 39 to 6, in The Game on Saturday.

By nightfall over the Charles River, the Yale men were sounding the tocsin and the disappointing losses in the house games were misty memories. Yale had achieved its first perfect football season since 1923, with nine victories in a row, and the garlands of football immortality had been earned on the same sacred Soldier Field sod where Yale last turned the trick in 1923.

Although this is the most hallowed series in college football, it has taken on a one-sided hue in recent years and these ancient foes have been slightly irreverent in piling up points. Harvard trounced Yale 28-0 in 1958 and 35-6 in the Bowl last year. Yale rolled up the series all-time high score with 56 points in 1956. Harvard's highest total against the Elis was 41 way back in 1915. The win Saturday was Yale's 44th compared to 26 for Harvard and seven ties.

• Of Pleasant Companions:

A trip to The Game in the company of John D. Schoonmaker, Bob Herzog and Clarence (Duby) Raichle, the golf wizard, is always a pleasant experience. This time we had the added pleasure of meeting Frank Bell, head football coach at Hotchkiss Prep at Lakeville. Bell happens to be brother-in-law to Floyd H. De Witt, local Cadillac tycoon and played under Coach Len Watters at White Plains High school. Watters is the current Williams College coach who will address the civic Awards dinner for Kingston High school varsity lettermen in Kingston next Wednesday. Bell, one of the finest gentlemen you could meet, was line coach for Watters at Williams before moving to the post at Hotchkiss where tradition runs high. Somehow, these items all seemed to tie in to make it a pretty football weekend.

The contrast between Schoonmaker and Herzog is startling. John D. has remained the eternal sophomore with respect to The Game. He relaxes only when Yale is 30 points ahead with two minutes to go and Harvard is trying to extricate itself from its own five yard line. Herzog takes the game with greater equanimity and poise. The bookies had Yale 10 points better, but Herzog quoted a Friday morning line of 50 to 6 (Yale) and stayed with it.

A visit to the tweedy, old tie atmosphere of the Harvard cage luncheon where family and class reunions are the order of the day convinced even the synthetic alumni that this is truly a game set apart. George Frazier (Harvard 1932), of the Life magazine staff once described The Game as "the poshest, and the pleasantest, most traditional and tumultuous... the most clannish sports spectacle in the United States." No man has ever more fully captured in words the spirit of Yale-Harvard.

• Better Days for Hobie:

Hobie Armstrong missed the pre-game starting lineup treatment on Channel 7 but was in there at the kickoff. It was a lean day for the former Kingston High school speedster, but he did make a nice 29-yard runback of a kickoff and only a desperate stab by Yale's Wolfe stopped Hobie from going all the way. The year 1961 will be brighter for Armstrong. He will be the No. back around whom Harvard will build its offense and November, 1961, in the Yale Bowl could be a different story.

Yale's opening thrust has ominous portents for the Cantabs. This was one of Yale's truly great teams, smartly drilled, with maturity, poise and tremendous line. They came to the brink of immortality and didn't waver. Harvard was enthusiastic, but jittery.

For John D's sake we were happy to see Yale win, although we had hoped for a better day for Hobie. With the pessimism that characterizes his approach to The Game, Schoonmaker had decided a Yale victory was a mathematical must. You see this was the 37th year since 1923. Since 37 is divisible only by itself and one; 3 times 37 is 111; 9 times 37 is 333 and 27 times 37 is 999, the only set of figures can achieve these trifles and J. D. places great faith in the fabled alchemy of trifles. The only man who could wreck this mathematical mélange was Hobie, and it wasn't his day. It seemed to make sense as we purrered over the Massachusetts Turnpike. Looking back, it seems J. D. was resorting to some pretty deep stuff.

Speculation, rather than college football teams, filled most of the available postseason bowl spots today even after Penn State and Baylor announced their willingness to participate in the Liberty and Gator Bowls, respectively.

This pair Monday joined Washington, Arkansas and Missouri, which over the weekend, announced bowl acceptances. Four of the nine major bowls have yet to fill a spot and it is unlikely that there will be much more action in that direction until after Saturday's games when many of the eligibles wind up the regular 1960 season.

The newly organized Gotham Bowl in New York may not even get off the ground. Syracuse, the defending national and Cotton Bowl champion, and a key to a good "home draw" by the Gotham committee, withdrew from all post-season consideration Monday.

The committee still hopes to name the winner of the Army-Navy game.

The list of available narrowed down to about 10, which include: Alabama (7-1), Tennessee (5-2-2) Mississippi (8-4-1), Minnesota and Iowa, both 8-1, Duke, Florida, Texas and Rice, all 7-2, and Oregon 7-2-1.

Iowa and Minnesota, Big Ten co-champions, must be eliminated if not invited to the Rose Bowl. Conference rules prohibit other bowl play.

The Lineup to Date

Here is the present bowl lineup, including the speculation:

ROSE—Washington (9-1), defending Big Five and Rose Bowl champ, is in. "It's just about narrowed down to Navy, Iowa and Minnesota, with some others under consideration," Huskies coach Jim Owens said Monday night. Navy gave Washington its only loss, 15-14, this season.

SUGAR—No berths filled. Mississippi is favored to win the Southeastern Conference title, with a victory Saturday over Mississippi State and the SEC champs usually is the host. Florida and Alabama may slip in if Ole Miss falters. The visitor may be Rice if the Owls beat Baylor and tie for the Southwest Conference title.

COTTON—Arkansas (8-2) is the host. Oregon, Alabama and Tennessee have been named as possibilities.

ORANGE—Missouri (9-1), which lost to Georgia 14-0 last New Year's Day, is back. Duke, the Atlantic Coast Conference king, may be the top choice now that Syracuse has declined.

GATOR—Baylor (7-2) is in, and Florida was invited last week but put off a decision until after its final game against Miami this weekend. If Ole Miss wins the SEC title, the Gators will accept.

LIBERTY—Penn State (6-3) is back to defend its title. Texas, Tennessee and Alabama, which lost 7-0 in the inaugural last year, are possibilities.

BLUEBONNET—No team has been named, but Texas seems the logical "home" choice. Again Tennessee and Alabama seem to be left out, depending who's left in the battle with the Liberty Bowl.

Tennessee Tech accepted a berth in the Tangerine Bowl Monday night.

AL's Early Draft Nabs Five Aces

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Five outstanding Southwest Conference football players were snapped up Monday by the American Football League's early draft. The sixth round of the drafting, being conducted by telephone, will be completed today.

E.J. Holub, Texas Tech center; Bob Lilly, Texas Christian tackle; Jerry Mays, Southern Methodist tackle; Arnold Davis, Baylor end; and Monte Lee, Texas Guard; were drafted by the AFL teams.

The Dallas Texans grabbed Holub, Lilly and Mays; Houston took Lee; and New York got Arnold Davis but traded him to Buffalo.

Auburn tackle Ken Rice was the first draft choice, drawn by Buffalo, which got the first pick due to its standings in the race.

First choices of the other seven clubs in the league were Tom Brown, Minnesota guard; Tommy Mason, Tulane halfback; Bob Galters; New Mexico State halfback; Joe Rutgers, Illinois tackle; Holub, Earl Faison, Indiana end; and Mike Ditka, Pittsburgh. Brown was drawn by New York. Mason by Boston. Galters by Denver, Rutgers by Oakland. Faison by Los Angeles and Ditka by Houston.

Commissioner Joe Foss said no players could be signed to contracts before completing their college eligibility, including bowl games.

Free Sub Rule Urged by Coach

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—University of Wyoming Coach Bob Devaney recommended today that college football lift all restrictions or permit free substitution.

Devaney said in an interview that "there's no sense to restricted or limited substitution at all. It doesn't prove a thing." He continued:

"Recruiting has become much more competitive since they instituted limited substitution. It limits the type of boy teams can use and places the emphasis on the all-around abilities—players that might not otherwise have a chance to compete. I think we are gradually moving back to unlimited substitution."

Devaney, 41, coached his Cowboys to a tie with Utah State for the Skyline Conference championship this season.

4655 Teams Entered in ABC's Regular Division

The 1961 ABC tournament was nearly three-fourths filled Friday, although the entry deadline is still more than two months away, it was announced by Frank K. Baker, ABC executive secretary.

Pre-tournament headquarters in Detroit has processed 4655 team entries for the Regular and Booster divisions. This is approximately 73 per cent of the team entries for which the tournament is sealed. Entries are now being accepted on a first come, first served basis through January 31. Entry forms should be sent to ABC Pre-Tournament Headquarters, Pick-Fort Shelby Hotel, Detroit 26, Michigan.

The office there was deluged with entries meeting the Nov. 1 reservation deadline. Of the 5502 teams that had made reservations, 4253 filed paid entries. This was nearly 400 more than a year ago when the final entry was 5716 teams.

The 1961 event is scheduled for 72 days in Cobo Hall, which is part of Detroit's beautiful new riverfront civic center development. It opens March 4. There will be 40 lanes, four more than in Toledo last year.

MOSCOW (AP)—The U.S. Embassy was in a flurry today wondering what Maj. Irving T. McDonald Jr. can comply with the Soviet order to leave the country when he doesn't even know he is charged with being a spy.

The officer, from Provincetown, Mass., is so far as the embassy knows—crossing the snow-covered plains by train on his way toward Moscow and cannot be reached to be told of the fix he's in.

The Soviet Foreign Office notified the embassy Monday that McDonald, 34, its assistant Air attaché, was being expelled on charges of engaging in intelligence activities and had just 48 hours to get out of the country.

The Soviet news agency Tass said McDonald was "caught red-handed taking photographs of military objectives during a trip to the town of Kurgan. Notebooks with intelligence information about defense objectives on the Moscow-Kurgan route were taken from him."

In Washington, State Department officials said McDonald's expulsion did not come as a surprise because it was virtually assured by a Soviet warning given him in August, when another Air attaché, Col. Edwin M. Kirton of Palo Alto, Calif., was expelled on spy charges.

It was supposed here that McDonald's expulsion was in retaliation for the arrest of Igor Y. Melekh, chief of the Russian translation of section of the United Nations. Melekh, arrested at his New York apartment Oct. 28, is accused of espionage and faces trial in the United States.

In Washington, State Department officials said McDonald's expulsion did not come as a surprise because it was virtually assured by a Soviet warning given him in August, when another Air attaché, Col. Edwin M. Kirton of Palo Alto, Calif., was expelled on spy charges.

It was supposed here that McDonald's expulsion was in retaliation for the arrest of Igor Y. Melekh, chief of the Russian translation of section of the United Nations. Melekh, arrested at his New York apartment Oct. 28, is accused of espionage and faces trial in the United States.

MOSCOW (AP)—The U.S. Embassy was in a flurry today wondering what Maj. Irving T. McDonald Jr. can comply with the Soviet order to leave the country when he doesn't even know he is charged with being a spy.

The officer, from Provincetown, Mass., is so far as the embassy knows—crossing the snow-covered plains by train on his way toward Moscow and cannot be reached to be told of the fix he's in.

The Soviet Foreign Office notified the embassy Monday that McDonald, 34, its assistant Air attaché, was being expelled on charges of engaging in intelligence activities and had just 48 hours to get out of the country.

The Soviet news agency Tass said McDonald was "caught red-handed taking photographs of military objectives during a trip to the town of Kurgan. Notebooks with intelligence information about defense objectives on the Moscow-Kurgan route were taken from him."

This Daily Bread

THANKSGIVING

To permit this day to be a feast-ival instead of a festival, is to make a travesty of Thanksgiving.

After George Washington had listed the possessions of America, he wrote in 1789 urging his fellow-citizens to unite in offering prayers . . . "to enable us all, whether in private or public situations" to be punctual in both gratitude and responsibility.

In 1960 this is still the challenge to this bounteous land, to share our resources with intelligent compassion. Possession is a responsibility.

One man saw the huddled refugees in Asia and East Zone Europe, and prayed "Forgive me my daily bread."

Thomas Carlyle announced that we could win the allegiances of men "not by flattering their appetites, but by awakening in them the heroic."

In any time, whether it is of tribulation or prosperity, life must be met with reverence and the awesome awareness that we can be free. Men have been enslaved by prosperity as they can be chained by their hungers. We are meant to be liberated from all of this slavery.

For this free land and for this opportunity to be of service to mankind, we give our thanks. Only the truly grateful are truly strong.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas of Kingston. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Koenig of 116 Andrew Street, this city.

Manuscripts must be accompanied by an official entry blank, postmarked not later than midnight, April 10, 1961, and sent to chairman, Dr. Hattie Mae Butterfield, Fort Smith Junior College, Fort Smith, Ark. For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of Dulsette satin in modified princess fashion with a fitted bodice, long sleeves tapered to points over the wrists and a circlet neckline. The bodice and waistline were accented with appliques of Alencon lace and the full skirt swept back into a chapel length circular train. The wide French illusion veil was secured to a princess crown of starched Alencon lace with seed pearl trim. The bride carried a cascade of white cymbidium orchids with stephanotis. She was given in marriage by Robert Smith.

Elaine Berinato of 2 North Wilbur Avenue, the bride's cousin, served as maid of honor in a gown of deep aquamarine peau de soie with fitted bodice, abbreviated sleeves and short belled skirt. The waistline was encircled with matching velvet ribbon. A bandeau of silken flowers held a circular tulle flirtation veil. She carried a white fur muff with shell pink cymbidiums.

Attired in gowns identical to that worn by the maid of honor, were the bridesmaids, Shirley Morris of 59 Florence Street, and Barbara Granwehr of 94 Livingston Street, Saugerties. They also carried white fur muffs with pink cymbidiums. The church was decorated with white mums for the occasion and the family pews were marked with white satin ribbon.

Joseph F. Koenig of 116 Andrew Street was best man for his brother. Ushers were Francis Koenig, 116 Andrew Street, also brother, and Charles Council of Port Ewen.

Guests were entertained at The Capri Restaurant in Port Ewen after the church ceremony.

Youngsters are resettled in the 250 Youth Aliyah villages and centers and given academic and vocational training, while receiving any needed medical and psychiatric care. Aptitude testing, agricultural and crafts training, and special programs for gifted children are included in the program.

The largest single contributor to Youth Aliyah, Hadassah has raised more than $38 million for the movement since 1934.

Good Taste Today

By EMILY POST
Author of "Children Are People" and "Etiquette," etc.

MAY A MAN USE NAIL POLISH?

Question: For quite some time now several friends of mine and I have been debating about whether or not a young man should paint his nails. Some of my friends feel as I do, that a well-groomed man always keeps his nails polished. I have noticed several salesmen in some very exclusive men's shops wearing it. I use nail enamel (clear) often. Other friends have criticized me for this and say it is in bad taste. So to settle this question once and for all, will you please tell me if it is proper for a man to use nail enamel?

Answer: Well cared for nails are essential to good grooming, but the use of nail polish by a man—even colorless polish—is in very bad taste and I cannot urge you too strongly to discontinue using it.

Inviting Friends of Her Attendants

Question: I am going to be married soon and will have four bridesmaids and two ushers. I would like to know if I am supposed to ask the attendants if there is anyone they would especially like to ask to the wedding. My sister tells me that this is the courteous thing to do. I have never heard of this before but want to do what is expected of me.

Answer: You should invite the parents of your bridesmaids so they can see how their daughters look in the wedding procession, but you are not expected to invite anyone else for the attendants. Of course if any of the attendants are engaged, their fiancées must be invited to the wedding.

Without Seeming Over-Eager

Question: When I have to refuse a date with a young man because of a previous engagement, would it be proper for me to suggest another night instead? I'm afraid if I say "no" he will think I don't want to go out with him and not ask me again. On the other hand, I don't want him to think me over-eager.

Answer: You cannot suggest a definite time, but you can say, "I'm sorry I'm unable to go—do ask me again."

The Emily Post Institute offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. ## Beisel Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Beisel of Connally will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on November 28.

Mrs. Beisel is the former Mary S. Lindgren of Brooklyn. The couple wed on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28, 1935 in St. Thomas Aquinas Church, Brooklyn. The Rev. John Bukey officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Beisel moved to the Kingston area in September, 1946. They have eight children: Sgt. Robert Beisel of the U. S. Army now stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J.; Maryann Miller of Troy; John, Kathy, Charles, Nancy, Peter and Philip. They also have two grandchildren, Valerie and Dawn Milne.

Mr. Beisel is employed by the Star Brick Company. He has served the company for the past 13 years.

According to Mrs. LaLima the really important factors in hair-styling today are the basic cut and the brush-out. These are the areas in which hairdressing does show. The basis of a hairdo is in sound hair cutting. The shape of a hairdo is obtained by the way the hair is cut—the weight taken from one section and left in another. Cutting is primarily done to get the correct weight and balance in the hair. Mrs. LaLima stressed the importance of the brush-out. The hairdo actually takes its form then. In addition, she said, vigorous brushing is essential for curl resiliency and overall lustre.

It is Mrs. LaLima's opinion that any woman can wear almost any hairdo—it can be varied to suit her individual characteristics. Once the cut is brushed down it can be made more flattering—higher or wider or lower as necessary. The current trend is high and soft and up from the neck, which tends to minimize faults.

The YWCA is a Red Feather Agency.

Women's Guild Is Planning New York Trip November 30

Reservations are still being accepted for two New York City trips by the Women's Guild of the Fair Street Reformed Church.

Thurlo-Pino Wedding Is Announced Here; Ceremony Takes Place at St. Joseph's

Miss Patricia Marie Thurlo of Saugerties, daughter of SFC and Mrs. Charles M. Thurlo, Killeen, Texas, exchanged nuptial vows with Joseph Anthony Pino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pino, Saugerties, on Sunday, Nov. 13 at 2 p.m. in St. Joseph's Church.

The Rev. William Williams officiated. Mrs. Frank Rafferty was organist and Mrs. Peter Mancuso sang "Mother Beloved," and "Ave Maria."

White gladioli and pompons decorated the church for the occasion. The pews were marked with white satin ribbon.

The bride was given in marriage by Thomas Petromale Sr.

She wore a white embroidered gown fashioned with a large bow in back, Sabrina neckline, long sleeves ending in points over the wrist and a bouffant hoop skirt which was floor length and ended in a chapel train. A veil of French illusion was fingertip in length and fell from a crown trimmed with crystals and seed pearls. The bride carried a missal covered with white satin and lace with an arrangement of white orchids, stephanotis and pearls.

The bridegroom's cousin, Helen Argulewicz of 41 Hutton Street, this city, served as maid of honor. She wore a pale turquoise gown of Dupion silk in sheath style with petal type overskirt. Her headpiece of silk petals held a circular tulle flirtation veil. She carried a nosegay of aqua and white carnations.

Serving as junior bridesmaid was Deborah Crespiño, the bridegroom's cousin. She wore blue satin styled with fitted bodice, cap sleeves and full skirt. She also wore a matching jeweled crown and carried a nosegay of blue and white carnations.

John Dodig of Saugerties was best man. Ushers were Peter L. Secreto of Kingston, the bridegroom's uncle; Robert Pino Jr., Saugerties, the bridegroom's brother.

More than 110 guests were entertained at the Flamingo in Saugerties.

The bride was educated in Europe and was a Civil Service employee for the U. S. Air Force in Germany for more than a year. She is now employed by IBM in Kingston. Her husband, an alumnus of Kingston High School, attended the University of Alabama for two years. He is a member of Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity and served two years with the U. S. Army at Landstuhl, Germany. He is now employed by Ulster Electric Company, Inc.

For her wedding trip to New York City, the bride wore a green cotton lace bodice with chiffon bouffant skirt and black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Pino will reside at 277 Albany Avenue, this city, when they return.

CSEA Regular Meeting

Members of the Ulster County Chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association will hold a regular monthly meeting on Monday, Nov. 28 at 8 p. m. in a second floor room of the Board of Public Works, 25 West O'Reilly Street.

Patrick Rogers, CSEA field representative will be guest speaker. A social hour will follow the business session. James P. Martin, president, urges all members to attend.

Winnie Progresses

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill continued to recuperate today from a back injury suffered in a fall a week ago.

He had no callers this morning, but one of his friends said that "Sir Winston is continuing to progress."

The former prime minister will be 86 on Nov. 30.

Solons Ordered to Pay

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — Thirty-five Philippine congressmen, Cabinet members and provincial governors are under orders to file income tax returns and pay up tax debts. Melecio Domingo, commissioner of internal revenue, gave the officials two weeks to clear up their delinquent standing or face prosecution.

Woodstock Area News

LISA TIANO, Correspondent

Rotron Offers 130,000 Shares In 1st Public Sale of Stock

Rotron Manufacturing Company of Woodstock on Nov. 16 made its first public offering of common stock through W. E. Hutton and Company as underwriters.

Since its inception in 1947, the company had been privately held by its founder, J. Constantine vanRijn, who still retains a 63 per cent majority interest after the issues takes effect.

The new capital attracted by the company will be applied for tooling of new products, for replacement of government-owned machinery, for enlargement of inventory as a result of expanding operations, and for repayment of short-term bank loans hitherto used for working capital.

The issue covered 130,000 shares offered at $17 per share. Approximately 9,000 shares were set aside and sold at the offering price to employees and business associates of the company.

Boy Scout Fund Campaign to Run To November 30

With slightly more than $600 collected to date, Woodstock township Boy Scout drive chairman Vern L. May today urged all residents to make returns as early as possible.

"We have set November 30 as the deadline for this year's drive and there are still outstanding several hundred returns," said May. "We know that many folks who plan to contribute to the campaign just haven't gotten around to it, but we hope they do so."

The chairman revealed that approximately $400 had been collected in general solicitations and more than $200 in the special gifts division. George Eichler is chairman of the general group and William Hand and Arthur Hansen are co-chairmen of the special gifts division.

The campaign drive will be stepped up by Thanksgiving Day and the weekend, he said, and he hoped to have final returns in the same of the deadline. "Just as advance, we ask folks to send in contributions," May added. A tentative quota of $1,500 has been set.

Encouraging Reports

May's announcement came in the backdrop of cautiously optimistic early reports from divisional headquarters of the Rip Van Winkle Council. As of Nov. 14, a total of $8,396 had been reported compared to $2,000 on the same date in 1959. Divisional officials, however, pointed out that this year's budget will run higher than last year's and urged workers to keep on the job. Best reports to date have come from the small towns of Milton, with $219, and Jewett with $159. The Northern and Rondout Valley districts are in the vanguard to date with $1,897 for Rondout and $1,585.45 reported by the Northern district.

Woodstock campaign officials pointed to the township's excellent record in scouting as an incentive for public support of the fund drive. But they also noted that extra funds will be needed to handle the extra activities that must be provided in the future. Lack of funds would otherwise preclude any possibility of further scout expansion in the community.

Christian Science Views Mesmerism

Spiritual alertness based on an understanding of Truth brings freedom from evil of every kind. This is the theme set forth at Christian Science services in Woodstock on Sunday.

Introducing the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the Golden Text from Matthew (24:4): "Take heed that no man deceive you."

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include (201:7): "Truth makes a new creature, in whom old things pass away and all things are become new." Passions, selfishness, false appetites, hatred, fear, all sensuality, yield to spirituality, and the superabundance of being is on the side of God, good."

From the Bible will be read (Isaiah 1:16, 17): "Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; Learn to do well."

Train Demolishes Car

NARROWSBURGH, N. Y. (AP)—An Erie Railroad passenger train bound from Hoboken, N. J., to Chicago demolished an auto stuck on the tracks near here at 4 a. m. today.

The driver of the auto, Emil Thol, 50, of Milandville, Pa., who had been trying to get it off the tracks, was not injured. He said he had driven onto the tracks in a fog and became stuck in gravel for hours.

The train was delayed for a half hour.

NEW YORK (AP) — A policeman on his way to work shot two of four youths who attacked and tried to rob him in Brooklyn Monday night, police reported.

Walter Ohman, 30, was wearing civilian clothes when the youths jumped him.

The policeman was knocked down but managed to pull out his gun. He identified himself. The youths fled.

Ohman said he fired two warning shots before he fired again, wounding Vaughan Reilly, 18, of Brooklyn, in the back and Gerald Cannon, 20, also of Brooklyn, in the leg.

Pressure on Kennedy Starts*Kremlin Drive Apparent To Split U. S. and Nato

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

A development in Paris Monday provides a clue to Soviet intentions toward the incoming U. S. administration. It indicates a long-range, back-door attack to divide the United States from its North Atlantic allies.

The Paris move carried a step further the Soviet attack on the structure of the United Nations. The Soviet delegation demanded that the U. N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization abolish the post of its director-general and substitute a three-member executive board, representing the Communist bloc, the neutrals and the West.

Similar to Other

This proposal was similar to the one applied to the U. N. secretary-general's office by Premier Khrushchev during his spectacular show in the U. N. Assembly last month.

The proposal is to abolish the secretary-general's office got little support, even from neutralist nations. But the Russians seem to be bringing up the general idea of three-man directorates time after time in various committees and agencies of the world peace organization.

To broach the idea for UNESCO, however, would seem to make little sense, even for the Kremlin. UNESCO is supposed to deal with matters largely outside the frigid atmosphere of the cold war.

Goal Is Questionable

It is difficult to see what the Russians expect to get out of their proposal.

What the Russians seem to be doing is serving notice that nothing can be done toward easing world tensions by the United Nations as it exists today.

By persisting in their demands, and applying them in such unlikely fields as cultural relations among nations, the Russians fortify the impression that they hope to freeze the cold war permanently into all U. N. organs. This indicates a Soviet presumption that the cold war cannot and will not come to an end.

Since the Russians seek to build into all U. N. organs a paralyzing, disruptive veto power, it would seem logical to assume that they will not work within the world organization unless they can control it. Lacking much prospect of that for the present, they seem to want to stall any effective U.N. operation.

Reds Prefer Summits

If the Russians have their way, this will mean summits, summits and more summits. The indications are that they are now generating the steam for pressure they intend to bring against the administration of President-elect Kennedy to push him into a top-level meeting in April.

When Sen. Kennedy became the apparent victor in the U. S. elections, Khrushchev sent him a message saying that "the eyes of many people are fixed on the United States and the Soviet Union, because the destinies of world peace largely depend upon the state of Soviet-American relations."

This seemed to express the idea

Lieutenant of Police Shoots Self in Station

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — A police lieutenant shot himself to death Monday night as he stood near three prisoners in a station house cellblock, police said.

Lt. Edward B. Schultz, 58, demolished one of the prisoners to stay out of trouble," then raised his service revolver to his head and fired, authorities said. Schultz had received orders transferring him to another precinct about a half-hour before. Police Commissioner Frank Felicetta said Schultz asked for the transfer himself to get to a "quieter" precinct.

Schultz, a 33-year veteran of the force, was on duty at the cold spring precinct house at the time. Police said they knew of no apparent motive.

Killed in Mishap

The five were returning home from school. None of Rizzo's companions were critically injured, police said.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rizzo of Gates.
